

AT THE MUSEUM

Nikki, at last we've done everything we wanted and we can act on our plans

Yes. You're right, Vinni

What shall we start with? I have a list of museums we dreamt of visiting. There are a lot of interesting things there. Which museum shall we go to first?

Let's use the map, which museum is the nearest and how can we get there?

Have a look, the nearest museum is the British Museum. We can walk there but it will take us about forty minutes or we can get there by the red double decker. What do you prefer?

Lets go by bus, it will save time.

Ok. Let's go right now.

Cool

Finally we have reached the museum.

Lets go inside and see it.

Nikki, it was great! The British Museum is splendid

I can't help admiring those collections of beautiful things

It's a pity we have only one day to look at them

If we plan our time carefully, we'll be able to see other places also.

It would be fine.
Which is the next museum in our itinerary?

It is the Natural History Museum

When does it open?

It opens at 10 am

Shall we go there by bus?

Sure. Lets have something and not waste our time.

Yaa sure.

Ok
