
Bookworm

A2 – B1

Module 3

© Albert-Learning

Summary

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:

- Books, Books, Books.
- History Of The Word "Bookworm".
- The Benefits of Being A Bookworm.
- Exercises.

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Stay up late: to go to bed later than usual. (For example: I stayed up late reading a book)

Worm: a long thin creature with no bones or legs, that lives in mud.

Pest: an insect or animal that destroys plants, food.

Sibling: a brother or sister.

Book series: a set of books published by the same company that deal with the same subject.

Magazine: a type of large thin book with a paper cover that you can buy every week or month, containing articles, photographs, etc., often on a particular topic.

© Albert-Learning