

Here's What We Will Be Learning
in this Presentation:

SUMMARY

- How Often do we Come Across Phrasal Verbs Everyday?
- Exercises

No more monkey business—let's get down to dealing with phrasal verbs right away.

Let's hang out!

Maybe we can put down some excellent thoughts about phrasal verbs together.

Hold on, I can't hear you!

Phrasal verbs have a way of worming their way into our everyday English. They pop up in most discussions at the office and while spending time with friends and family. Let's do some exercises to help you revise your phrasal verbs:

NEVER EVER
EVER GIVE UP!

In Up Into Down Out Even Along Off Round Forward Back About

Use the verbs 'Break' and 'Bring' with any of the above prepositions to complete the below sentences:

- 1) Jane _____ a run when she saw her bus approaching. She didn't want to be late for school again.
- 2) _____ something to eat, because we won't stopping anywhere on the way.
- 3) I heard the window smash. Someone's trying to _____!
- 4) Talking to an old friend _____ many wonderful memories.
- 5) I can't believe Karen and Arnie _____! They were dating for almost a year.

- 6) Do you think Mona will be able to _____ the event? It looks so disorganised.
- 7) Peggy's car _____ in the middle of an isolated road. She had walk a mile to get help.
- 8) Tyler is capable of _____ the most opinionated people to his views.
- 9) Keith's skin _____ with boils and a rash after fell into a poison ivy plant in the garden.
- 10) We'll have to _____ the party, because Jason has to leave on a trip on short notice.
- 11) It took 4 years for Ben and Ted's business to _____.
- 12) Clara _____ many changes in the office after she took over as manager.

Use the appropriate preposition to complete these sentences with 'Call' 'Carry' and 'Come':

- 1) Susan called _____ (out/up/off) her engagement with Don.
- 2) They carried _____ (on/out/up) our instructions perfectly.
- 3) I came _____ (about/across/around) some old letters written by my grandfather.
- 4) Mary was called _____ (out/in/upon) to make a speech before the evening festivities began.
- 5) Sophie carried _____ (out/in/off) her performance brilliantly!
- 6) How did you come _____ (on/by/out) this rare book?

Verbs:-

Go Give Look Sit Point Count

Prepositions:-

Over Up Around About On After Under Out In

Combine the verbs and prepositions listed above to form appropriate phrasal verbs for these sentences (e.g. 1):

- 1) The firefighters fought the blaze while the crowd looked on.
- 2) There was nothing to do when the system crashed, so we just _____ .
- 3) _____ words in the dictionary if you can't understand them!
- 4) Sally is the first to _____ our mistakes.
- 5) Tom was _____ Mark to help him with the gardening.

- 6) Don't _____ to your temptations, you are on a diet.
- 7) Kate _____ for her younger sister when they are away at boarding school.
- 8) After 3 straight years of losses, the company has finally _____.
- 9) Can you _____ these numbers again? Something's not right.
- 10) The doctor will _____ on you when he comes in the afternoon.

