

Past simple verb 'to be'

Tenses – 1 (Past Simple Of “To Be”)

A1 – A2

Module 6

Here's What We Will Be Learning
in this Presentation:

Summary

- ❑ Let us learn about the Simple Past Tense of "to be" in positive, negative and question form.
- ❑ Exercises.

Simple Past Tense of "To Be"- Positive

I

was

cold.

You

were

cold.

He/
she

was sleepy.

It

was raining.

They

were

in the garden.

We

were hungry.

Exercise 1:

Write the correct form of "to be" (positive):

I

?

cold.

You

?

cold.

He/
she

?

sleepy.

It

?

raining.

They

?

in the garden.

We

?

hungry.

Simple Past Tense of "To Be"- Negative

I was not= wasn't cold.

You were not= weren't cold.

He/ she was not= wasn't sleepy.

It

was not= wasn't

raining.

They

were not= weren't

in the garden.

We

were not= weren't

hungry.

Exercise 2:

Write the correct form of "to be" (negative):

I

?

cold.

You

?

cold.

He/
she

?

sleepy.

It

?

raining.

They

?

in the garden.

We

?

hungry.

Simple Past Tense of "To Be"- Question Form

Was

I

cold?

Were

you

cold?

Was

he/
she

sleepy?

Was

it

raining?

Were

they

in the garden?

Were

we

hungry?

Exercise 3:

Write the question form of the sentence:

1) I was cold. = Was I cold?

4) It was raining. = _____?

2) You were cold. = _____ you cold?

5) They were in the garden. = _____?

3) He/she was sleepy. = _____
_____ sleepy?

6) We were hungry. = _____?

