
Speed Reading

B1 – B2

Module 1

© Albert-Learning

Summary

Here's What We Will Be Learning:

- Meaning of Speed Reading and importance.
- Types of Reading.
- Speed Reading Techniques.
- Advantages and Disadvantages.

© Albert-Learning

VOCABULARY

Twitch: Short sudden jerking or convulsive movement which is unintentional or involuntary. E.g. The old man had a twitch in one eye (noun).

Index Finger: Finger next to the thumb. E.g. We point with our index finger.

Peripheral: Things that are just outside our main focus.
E.g. We use peripheral vision to see things which are not directly in front of us.

Powdered: Crushed fine like grains of sand.
E.g. Powdered spices last longer than whole spices.

Plaque: An ornamental tablet made of wood, clay or metal made in honour of a person or event.
E.g. Metal plaques usually mark houses where famous artists were born.

© Albert-Learning