Interjections

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

What Is An Interjection?

An interjection is a word, sound, or phrase that expresses a strong emotion such as pain or surprise but otherwise has no meaning. Interjections are generally used when quoting spoken words, avoid using interjections in formal writing. They are usually followed by an exclamation point.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Some Interjections And Their Meanings

Eh	Question something
Aww	Something sweet or cute
Bingo	Acknowledge something as right
Darn	Exclamation of anger
Oops	Making a mistake
Ouch	Exclamation of pain
Shh	An inclination for silence
Yaay	Congratulatory exclamation
Hmm	Can mean you're thinking or hesitating

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING