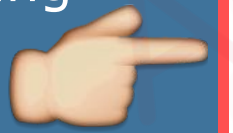
What Do You Do?

A2 – B1

Module 9

© Albert-Learning

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:



Summary

- Let us learn about different types of jobs through a role play.
- Exercises.

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Fashion designer: a person who designs high-fashion clothing.

Veterinary surgeon: a person qualified to treat diseased or injured animals.

Human Resources: (in this context) a department within an organization that deals with the people who work for that organization.

Model: a person who wears clothes so that they can be photographed or shown to possible buyers.

Bartender: a person serving drinks at a bar.

Legal Secretary: they serve as assistants in law companies, assisting lawyers.

Accountant: someone whose job is to keep the financial records of a business or person.

© Albert-Learning