Vocabulary

Offbeat: unconventional; unusual.

Silhouette: the shape of something when the light is behind it so that you cannot see any details.

Paraphernalia: all the objects needed for or connected with a particular activity.

Steampunk: books or movies about an imagined time when machines use steam for power rather than modern engines and methods, or a style of fashion based on this.

Strategically: (in this context) of position, if something is in a strategic position, it is in a useful place for achieving something.
