Natural Disasters

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Vocabulary

Derived: coming from or caused by something else

Displacement: the situation in which people are forced to leave the place where they normally live.

Debris: broken or torn pieces of something larger.

Condense: to reduce something, such as a speech or piece of writing, in length.

Drought: a long period when there is little or no rain.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

A natural disaster is an event in nature which causes destruction. It disrupts the lives of people and causes injuries and, death. Natural disaster includes cyclones, earthquakes, floods, drought, heat and cold waves, landslides, avalanches, flash floods, severe thunder storms, hail etc.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING