World Food Prices on the Rise

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Vocabulary

Agflation: a significant rise globally in price of food.

Biofuel: a fuel derived immediately from living matter.

Cost-push (inflation): relating to or denoting inflation caused by increased labour or raw material costs.

Demand-pull (inflation): relating to or denoting inflation caused by an excess of demand over supply.

Outstrip: To exceed.

Surge: 1) a sudden large increase, typically a temporary one. 2) (as a verb): to increase suddenly and powerfully.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

In recent years, there has been a significant increase in global food prices that has given rise to the term agflation. In this presentation, we are going to look at its causes and what the future holds for the world in terms of food.

© 2018 albert-learning.com