What makes a country developed

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Commonality: the sharing of a set of features.

Life expectancy: the length of time that a person is likely to live.

Literacy: the ability to read and write.

Potable: clean and safe to drink.

Sanitation: conditions relating to public health, especially the provision of clean drinking water and adequate sewage disposal.

Revamp: to change or arrange something again, in order to improve it.

curriculum: all the courses given in a school, college, etc.

Contraception: methods used to prevent pregnancy.

Gross Domestic Product(GDP): the total value of goods and services produced by a country in a year.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Developed Countries

- A developed nation is one that has a very high rank in industrial advancements, construct its economy in innovation in assembling rather then agribusiness.
- A nation with more Human Development Index is viewed as a developed nation.
- It is not only a measures of economic development and improved GDP.

© 2018 albert-learning.com