

Seminar

B2 – C1

Module 2

© Albert-Learning

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:

Summary

- Need and Importance of Student Seminars.
- 5 Helpful Steps To Conduct A Successful And Smooth-running Seminar.
- Effective Public Speaking.
- Exercises.

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Bite-Sized Learning: short yet substantial pieces of information delivered in a time-bound manner.
Complacency: a feeling of smug or uncritical satisfaction with oneself or one's achievements.
Line-up: group of people or things brought together in a particular context, especially the members of a sports team or a group of musicians or other entertainers.
Outline: a general description or plan giving the essential features of something but not the detail.
Proofread: read (printer's proofs or other written or printed material) and mark any errors.
Production Meeting: a team meeting to discuss an organised event.
Go off on a tangent: to suddenly start talking or thinking about a completely new subject.