Here's What We
Will Be Learning
in this Presentation:

SUMMARY

- ❑ How does the author create puns in writing?
- ❑ Types of puns.
- ❑ Exercises.

Pun Intended:

Pun intended means that the joke was a deliberate one. A pun is a play with a word, e.g. "You can tune a guitar, but you can't tuna fish." Sometimes authors accidentally do this; that is, they did not mean to play with a word, but a reader can interpret the author's work as a pun.
