

Enrolling Your Child In A School

VOCABULARY

Acquaintance: a person known to one, but usually not a close friend.

Accustom: to make (oneself) familiar with a practice or habit or experience, etc.

Rigor: strictness, severity, or harshness, as in dealing with people.

Innate: existing in a person or animal from birth; inborn.

Exorbitant: in excess of what is reasonable.

Pacify: to calm the anger or agitation of someone.

Allot: to give or apportion (something) to someone as a share or task.

Introduction

One of the most important decisions in parents' life is the decision of the school to enroll their children. The admission can start from two years or 3 years depending on the school.

The child comes home from his first day at school. Mother: "What did you learn today?" Kid: "Not enough. I have to go back tomorrow."

