Consultation at the Dentist

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Invasive: moving into all areas of something and difficult to stop.

Fracture: a break or crack in something hard, especially a bone.

Amalgam: a mixture of mercury and another metal, especially one used by dentists to repair teeth.

Susceptible: easily influenced or harmed by something.

Heredity: the process by which characteristics are given from a parent to their child through the genes.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

Dental consultation, which is recommended at least once a year, is an assessment of a person's oral health. It is a non-invasive visit with your dental care provider where you can examine your issues, concerns, and treatment options.

© 2018 albert-learning.com