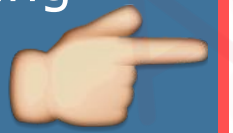
Unity in Diversity

B1 – B2

Module 5

© Albert-Learning

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:



Summary

- Role Play between two Friends from Different Countries at the University.
- Exercises.

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Buddy: (U.S.) used when talking to a man, sometimes in a friendly way but often when you are annoyed.

Accent: a distinctive way of pronouncing a language, especially one associated with a particular country, area, or social class.

Freshman: a first-year student at university.

Weird: very strange and unusual, unexpected, or not natural

Dude: a man; a guy (often as a form of address).

Schedule: a plan for carrying out a process or procedure, giving lists of intended events and times.

© Albert-Learning