

Trade Sanctions

C1-C2

Module 9

© Albert-Learning

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:

SUMMARY

- ❑Introduction.
- ❑Forms of Trade Sanctions.
- ❑Targets of a sanction.
- ❑When and why is a sanction needed?
- ❑Does it work?
- ❑Exercise.

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Coercive: to persuade someone forcefully to do something that they are unwilling to do.

Retaliatory: a retaliatory action is one that is harmful to someone who has done something to harm you.

Nascent: (especially of a process or organization) just coming into existence and beginning to display signs of future potential.

Undermine: lessen the effectiveness, power, or ability of, especially gradually or insidiously.

Proliferation: rapid increase in the number or amount of something.

© Albert-Learning