Adjectives: Personality, Description, Feelings

A2 – B1

Module 1

© Albert-Learning

Here's What We Will Be Learning in this Presentation:

Summary

- ❑What are descriptive adjectives?
- ❑What are adjectives used for describing personality?
- ❑What are the adjectives used to describe feelings?
- ❑Exercises

© Albert-Learning

Vocabulary

Verbally: expressed in words as opposed to actions.

Texture: the feel, appearance, or consistency of a surface or a substance.

Proud: feeling deep pleasure or satisfaction as a result of one's own achievements, qualities, or possessions.

Embarrassed: feeling or being uncomfortable, shy.

Hurt: to cause emotional pain, offend.

Shy: nervous or timid in the company of other people.

© Albert-Learning