Banking

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

VOCABULARY

Reigning: occupying the throne; ruling.

Monarch: a king or queen.

Bankruptcy: a situation in which a business or a person becomes unable to pay their debts, and is officially bankrupt.

Denomination: a unit of value, especially of money.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

What Is Banking?

An industry that allows people to save (and borrow) money, banking has been around for a long long time.

With its roots in the ancient world (the barter system, money lenders), banking has now evolved to such heights, that it is a measure of the financial stability of a country.

© 2018 albert-learning.com