Football

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Manoeuvre: a movement or set of movements needing skill and care.

Comprising: to have things or people as parts or members; to consist of.

Originated: to come from a particular place, time, situation, etc.

Annual: happening once every year.

Quadrennial: happening every four years.

Confederations: an organization consisting of different groups of people, countries, or companies working together for business or political reasons.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

Football is the world's most popular ball game and played in over 200 countries. The principal rules for football are simple. It consists of two teams, each comprising of eleven players. The eleven players try to manoeuvre the ball into opposing team's goal. Many continental tournaments are popular. There are four continental tournaments, FIFA World cup, UEFA European championship, Copa Americas and AFC (Asian football confederation) Asian Cup. FIFA is the most popular in the world.

© 2018 albert-learning.com