Airport Security – Technology Vs Terrorism

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Vocabulary

Malicious: intended to harm or upset other people.

Sabotage: deliberately destroy, damage, or obstruct (something), especially for political or military advantage.

Propaganda: information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote a political cause or point of view.

Concourse: a large space or room in a public building such as a station or airport that people meet in or pass through.

Drastic: (especially of actions) severe and sudden or having very noticeable effects.

Explosive: a substance that can be made to explode, especially any of those used in bombs or shells.

Swabs: a specimen taken with a swab.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

Airport security refers to the techniques and methods used in an attempt to protect passengers, staff and planes which use the airports from accidental/malicious harm, crime and other threats.

It is a combination of human and material resources to safeguard civil aviation against unlawful interference, which could be acts of terrorism, sabotage, threat to life and property, communication of false threat, bombing, etc.

© 2018 albert-learning.com