Cloud Printing for Android

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Vocabulary

Beta: used to describe a product or system that is at the second stage of development and that is being tested by a few customers before it is offered for sale.

Presume: to believe something to be true because it is very likely, although you are not certain.

Toner: ink for a printer or photocopier.

Finite: having a limit or end.

Breaches: an act of breaking a law, promise, agreement, or relationship.

Deployments: the use of something or someone in an effective way.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

Google Cloud Print is a beta service proposed by Google which helps connect your printer in two ways, one built with Google Cloud Print compatibility in mind, or just any old one you've used in the traditional way -- to the cloud, allowing you or anyone you choose to submit print jobs from a wireless device, even when they're not physically close to the printer.

© 2018 albert-learning.com