Netherlands

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Constituent: one of the parts that a substance or combination is made of.

Mainland: the main part of a country or continent, not including the islands around it.

Fertility: (of land) the quality of producing a large number of good quality crops.

Dam: a wall built across a river that stops the river's flow and collects the water.

Hangout: a place where someone spends a lot of time, or where someone lives.

Eave: the edge of a roof that sticks out over the top of a wall.

Vibrant: energetic, exciting, and full of enthusiasm.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Introduction

The Netherlands (Dutch: Nederland), often referred to as Holland, is a country located mostly in Western Europe with a population of 17 million people. Together with three island territories in the Caribbean (Bonaire, Sint Eustatius and Saba), it forms a constituent country of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

© 2018 albert-learning.com