Either vs Neither

EITHER

VS

NEITHER

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Either / or

Either / or: is used in a sentence when referring to a choice between two possibilities.

Examples:

- You can either call me at home or at the office.
- Either mum or dad will come to pick you up.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Other uses of Either / Or

- Either can also be followed by (one) of + group of two
  i.e. you can use either of with a plural noun / pronouns
  Examples:
  a. Either of us could do it (Either one of us could do it)
  b. I don't know either of them very well.
  c. There was no sound from either of the rooms.

- Not… either… or denies both possibilities:
  Examples:
  a. I don’t think either Mike or Lisa will be there.
  b. He doesn’t speak either English or French.

© 2018 albert-learning.com