Spider-Man

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Web-slinging - an epithet describing the characteristic ability of Spider-Man to produce great amounts of web and then hurl it out of his hand.

Newfound - recently discovered or established.

Watchful- watching someone or something closely; alert and vigilant.

To hold something/someone important - to consider as important, valuable or dear.

Goof - a mistake made during film production that finds its way into the final released picture and which might seem funny or produce different effects on the viewer such as annoyance or loss in realism.

Anachronism - an error in chronology in which a person, object, event, etc., is assigned a date or period other than the correct one.

Hijack: illegally seize (an aircraft, ship, or vehicle) in transit and force it to go to a different destination.

Erratically - in a manner that is not even or regular in pattern or movement.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

Spider-Man is a fictional superhero created by writer-editor Stan Lee and writer-artist Steve Ditko. Spiderman is a character that is published by Marvel comics and has been adapted into a number of movies, television shows and video games as part of the Marvel Cinematic Universe. Spider-Man is the story of young boy by the name of Peter Parker who lives with his uncle and aunt. His origin story explains how he got his spider like abilities after being bitten by a radioactive spider and thus, the name Spider-Man. His powers include clinging to surfaces, shooting spider-webs from wrist-mounted devices, and detecting danger with his "spider-sense".

© 2018 albert-learning.com