© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Introduction

What is an Idiom?

An idiom is a word or phrase which means something different from its literal meaning.

For example, if you say someone has "cold feet," it doesn't mean their toes are actually cold. Rather, it means they're nervous about something.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Some common Idioms

Piece of cake.

A task or a job that is easy or simple to accomplish.
E.g. The exam paper was a piece of cake.

© 2018 albert-learning.com