

Adverbs of degree

very enough just nearly extremely scarcely completely almost hardly too quite

Adverbs of degree tell us the intensity, attentiveness, or even depth of a particular action.

1. They answer the question “how much” or “upto what extent”
2. Adverbs of degree usually modify verbs, adjectives, adverbs or clauses.
3. Adverbs of degree are usually placed before the adjective, adverb, or verb that they modify (Though there are some exceptions).

Some common examples of Adverb of Degree are listed below

Almost	Absolutely	Badly	Barely	completely decidedly	deeply	enough	entirely	extremely fairly	far	fully	greatly	hardly less	little	lots	most	much nearly	perfectly	pretty	purely	quite strongly	too	utterly	very	well