

A children's story that can only be enjoyed by children is not a good children's story in the slightest.

-C.S. Lewis

All Time Favourite Children's Books

B1 – B2

Module 1

Here's What We Will Be Learning:

Summary

- ❑ What is children's literature? Why are children's books important?
- ❑ A look at some timeless children's stories.
- ❑ Exercises.

Vocabulary

Folk Tales: Part of folklore (traditions, customs and beliefs). These are stories passed down through the ages by word-of-mouth.

For example: Little Red Riding Hood is a popular folk tale.

Glimpse: Looking at something or someone for a very short time.

For example: He got a glimpse of the mystery guest while passing his father's room.

Societal Norms: Standards or accepted behaviour in a society.

For example: Single parents have changed traditional societal norms.

Settlement: A previously empty land which people build their houses on and form communities.

For example: A large Roman settlement has been discovered just outside the French town.