

Allowed and Not Allowed

Vocabulary

Denied: to not allow someone to have or do something.

Escape: to get free from something, or to avoid something.

Wander: If your mind or your thoughts wander, you stop thinking about the subject that you should be giving your attention to and start thinking about other matters.

Designed: the way in which something is planned and made.

Flexibility: the ability to change or be changed easily according to the situation.

Dictated: to give orders, or tell someone exactly what they must do, with total authority.

Clothing: clothes, especially clothes of a particular type or those worn in a particular situation:

Introduction

Allowed is used to give permission while Not allowed is used to deny permission. Take a look at the following examples:

- You are allowed to bring your book. - permission is given
- I was allowed to use my equipment. - permission was given
- Burt was allowed to use that vehicle. - permission was given
- Cigarette smoking is not allowed here. - permission is denied
- Photography is not allowed at this venue. - permission was denied
- Emily was not allowed to take the exam. - permission was denied

