Pros on being famous

Celebrities have everything they want, because they make a lot of money.

Famous people are well known everywhere around the world.

They get access to the best restaurants and receive VIP treatment at clubs and restaurants.

They earn enough money to last them well into their old age.

Being famous is such a gift for me because small things make people's lives brighter. You just shake somebody's hand. You just smile and write your name and people will talk about it for the rest of their lives.
