

Dating and relationship

Relationships

When the couple decide to start a serious future together, it is a committed relationship.

Boyfriend - used to describe the boy

Girlfriend - used to describe the girl

Types of Dating

Online Dating - People get to know each other over the internet and not through person.

Speed Dating - This is set up by an organisation. People meet at a designated location and spend time with each other.

Blind Dating - Two people who do not know each other are set up on a date by a common friend.

