VOCABULARY

To suck it up: (In informal speech) accept something unpleasant or difficult. For example: John told Mary "I don't care if you're sad; suck it up and deal with the situation!"

To buckle: (In this context) to bend or give-way. For example: Caroline was too weak to stand and every time she tried, her knees would buckle under.

Job: A quick sharp blow or poke. For example: She tried to get his attention with a jab on shoulder.

Wimp: A weak and cowardly or unadventurous person. For example: The two women were discussing their neighbour: "He may give the outward appearance of a bully, but he's a wimp on the inside!"

Humility: The quality of having a modest or low view of one's importance or to be humble. For example: Eric has the humility to understand that there are chefs better than him; though he has won two Michelin Stars.

Humiliate: make (someone) feel ashamed and foolish by injuring their dignity and self-respect, especially publicly. For example: Claude enjoyed humiliating Donna in front of her friends.
