

Education University

What is a university?

A place of higher education usually for people who have finished twelve years of schooling and where they can obtain more knowledge and skills, and get a degree.

University office

In a university office, students get all information regarding the university and manage administrational functions.