

Exercise 4 (for high school)

Change the words in brackets into adjectives.

1. Those people are very ___ (friend) to strangers.
2. We could not hear his ___ (stealth) footsteps as he crept into the house.
3. He is quite an ___ (innocence) child. I don't think what he said was ___ (intention).
4. "That woman has a ___ (remark) sense of balance. Look at her walking with a jar of water on her head!" he said.
5. The ___ (silver) surface of the lake was rippling in the breeze and there was a moon above. It was an ___ (enchantment) night!
6. The garden looked ___ (neglect), for weeds had sprung up everywhere.
7. The ___ (origin) document was destroyed in a ___ (rage) fire two years ago.
8. The substance looked ___ (starch) but it had a rather ___ (acid) taste.
9. Betty is generally an ___ (obey) child, but today she made a ___ (deliberation) attempt to disobey her mother.

Add conjunctions to the following sentences.

1. The man would not leave ___ the restaurant threatened to call the police.
  - A. And
  - B. As
  - C. Even though
  - D. But

2. He tries to talk to her ___ he always freezes up whenever he opens his mouth.
  - A. In order to
  - B. If
  - C. But
  - D. although