VOCABULARY

Vicious: Used to describe an object, condition, or remark that causes great physical or emotional pain; cruel. For example: “That Jerry stole Mark’s money, is a vicious lie!”

Leaning: A definite but not decisive attraction or tendency —often used in plural. OR a preference for something or tendency to do something. For example: More and more people are leaning towards farm grown products.

Recreation: Refreshment of strength and spirits after work; also: a means of refreshment or diversion: hobby. For example: Chess is a great recreational activity!
