

Manage A Strike

Vocabulary

Strike action: also known as a walkout, a work stoppage caused by the mass refusal of employees to perform work.

Culturestrike: refusal or artist or art to respectively produce and show art.

General strike: strike action by a critical mass of the labour force in a city, region, or country.

Hunger strike: participant fast as an act of political protest, or to provoke feelings of guilt in others.

Rent strikes: when a group of tenants agrees to refuse to pay a specific list of demands is met by the landlord.

Student strike: occurs when students enrolled at a teaching institution such as a school, college or university refuse to go to class.

Why a Strike?

A strike is a work stoppage undertaken in support of a bargaining position or in protest of some aspect of a previous agreement or proposed agreement between labour and management.

In other words, a strike is an episode wherein a company's work force engages in a work stoppage in an effort to elicit changes from its employers in such areas as:

- wages
- benefits
- job security
- management practices.

