

Phrases / Idioms in Business English

Summary:

- Idioms - Meaning & Examples
- Exercises

Here's What We Will Be Learning
in this Presentation:

Pass the buck: To blame someone or make them responsible for a problem that you should deal with.

Eg: She's always trying to pass the buck and I'm sick of it!

Cost an arm and a leg: To be extremely expensive.

Eg: Buying new office equipment cost Mike an arm and a leg.