What are Relative Pronouns?

- Relative pronouns are used to link a relative clause to another part of a sentence.
- A relative clause is a subordinate clause that tells us more about the noun in the main clause.
- We use the term “relative” pronoun because it “relates” to the word it is modifying.

- Relative pronouns:

1. Who
2. Whose
3. Whom
4. Where
5. Which
6. What
7. That
