

Role Play: An Interview At Shopping Mall

Vocabulary

In between jobs: a person is currently unemployed — having quit, been fired, or laid off from his or her previous job, or the previous job was temporary and has now ended.

Window shopping: the activity of spending time looking at the goods on sale in shop windows without intending to buy any of them.

Old-fashioned: in or according to styles or types no longer current; not modern.

Hip: very fashionable.

Alluring: attractive or exciting.

Tagline: a short, easily remembered phrase that a company uses in its advertisements, especially on television or the internet, so that people will recognize it or its products.

Hello Miss, Can I have a few minutes of your time please? We are conducting a survey to gather information from customers about services offered at the mall.

Okay, well can you tell me your first name and age please?

Yes! Sure, I'm happy to help!

My name is Clara and I'm 32 years old.
