Introduction

A Business Trip / Travel is a journey made somewhere and back again for business purposes in one's working capacity. This is opposed to the other travels like that for leisure purposes.

Business trips may be carried out for various reasons, such as: Professional development and attending a congress; Visiting a project site for evaluation; strengthening relationships with customers or for building new partnerships, etc.

This presentation is a role-play between 2 colleagues, one of whom is on a business trip.
