

SUBORDINATE CONJUNCTIONS

Conjunctions Classification

Coordinating conjunction :

A coordinating conjunction is a conjunction (such as and) that joins two similarly constructed and/or syntactically equal words, phrases, or clauses within a sentence. Also called a coordinator.

The coordinating conjunctions are :-
and, but, for, nor, or, so, yet.

Eg : 1). She must have been tired, for she fell asleep the moment she inclined her head.

2). Wilbur didn't know what to do or which way to run.

3). I can tell you what happened, but not yet.

Subordinating conjunction :

A subordinating conjunction is a word which joins together a dependent clause and an independent clause.

E.g. I read the paper because it interests me .

→ Dependent clause – Because it interests me

→ Independent clause – I read the newspaper

→ Conjunction – Because
