

PRONOUNS

- Pronouns are small words that take the place of a noun. We can use a pronoun instead of a noun.
- Pronouns are words like: he, you, ours, themselves, some, each... If we didn't have pronouns, we would have to repeat a lot of nouns.

We would have to say things like:

Do you like the manager? I don't like the manager. The manager's not friendly.

With pronouns, we can say:

Do you like the manager? I don't like him. He's not friendly.

In this way, pronouns help us use fewer words and avoid repetition.

There are different types of pronoun, but they all have the same job - to represent a noun (phrase).

- Personal
- Possessive
- Reflexive
- Intensive
- Indefinite
- Relative
- Interrogative
- Reciprocal
- Demonstrative
