VOCABULARY

Hideout: a secret place where someone can go when they do not want to be found by other people. For example: Their summers were spent exploring caves along the cliffside; one of the caves became a hideout.

Bespoke: specially made for a particular person. Also, tailor-made or custom-made. For example: His suits are bespoke.

Ornithologist: a person who studies birds. For example: Ron is studying to be an ornithologist.

Illusionist: an entertainer who performs tricks where objects seem to appear and then disappear. For example: Cris Angel is a famous illusionist.
