

What NOT to Say During a Job Interview.

Summary

Here's What We Will Be Learning
in this Presentation:

- ❑ Words or phrases not to be used during a job interview.
- ❑ What the interviewer interprets about these words or phrases.

Vocabulary

Neutral: having features or characteristics that are not easily noticed.

From Scratch: from the beginning, without using anything that already exists.

Infectious: something that is infectious has an effect on everyone who is present and makes them want to join in.

Abrupt: using too few words when talking, in a way that seems rude and unfriendly.