

I suppose I have come to realize that entertainment is not easily dismissed. Beyond the meaning (of a work of art), it is important to people. Without it, lives can be dull.

— Stan Lee —

AZ QUOTES

Forms Of Entertainment

B1 – B2

Module 2

© Albert-Learning

SUMMARY

Here's What We Will Be Learning:

- What is entertainment and why is it important?
- Types and forms of Entertainment.
- Exercises.

© Albert-Learning

VOCABULARY

To Hold One's Attention: to keep someone riveted to you or to attract focus for a long period of time.
For example: His stories held people's attention at parties.

Fundamental: basic or essential.
For example: Some understanding of grammar is fundamental to learning a language.

Acrobat: a person performing difficult physical acts like jumping, balancing, etc.
For example: John's acrobats made his parents hold their breath out of fear he would lose his balance and fall!

Living Statue: people who paint themselves and their outfits to resemble statues.
For example: Cedric works as a living statue. His job is tough since he has to stay in the same pose for hours!

Orchestra Conductor: a person who directs a live orchestra with the use of a baton or hands.
For example: A good conductor is needed for an excellent orchestral performance!

Pantomime: make gestures without using words to express oneself.
For example: My pantomime was filled with childish laughter as I blundered on.

© Albert-Learning