
Dealing with Annoying Co-Workers-Part I

C1 – C2

Module 2

© Albert-Learning

SUMMARY

Here's What We Will Be Learning:

- Types of Annoying Co-Workers.
- Tips on How To Handle Each One of Them.
- Exercises

© Albert-Learning

VOCABULARY

Exasperation: a feeling of intense irritation or annoyance. For example: She rolled her eyes in exasperation.

Sideline seats: are in the higher rows of the lower level and are the best in any football stadium. They are close to the action, relatively close to any facilities you might need during a game (such as concessions, team stores, restrooms, etc.) and have an excellent view.

Pushover: a pushover is a person who's easy to fool or influence. For example: A substitute teacher who's a pushover is easily convinced that the class usually spends an hour watching music videos. If you're a pushover, you find it hard to deny anyone what they ask for.

Jab: a quick sharp blow or poke. For example: She tried to get his attention with a jab on shoulder.

© Albert-Learning