Entertainment - Television

© 2018 albert-learning.com

VOCABULARY

Era: the period of time to which anything belongs.

Youth: young people collectively.

Broadcast: to transmit (programs) from a radio or television station.

Host: a person who introduces guests and performers on television or radio.

Concern: to trouble, worry.

Preacher: a person who gives a religious speech.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Introduction

A person spends an average of 3-4 hours per day watching television either for entertainment or information. Before the television era, people had different thoughts of entertainment such as parties, sports, concerts, theaters etc.

Television has created new genres of entertainment in the recent times. All TV programmes such as commercials, news, documentaries and cartoon have an influence on people of all ages in various ways.

© 2018 albert-learning.com