Booking a Hotel Room

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Vocabulary

Facility- A place, amenity, or piece of equipment provided for a particular purpose.

Lounge- A public room in a hotel in which to sit and relax.

Wake up call- A telephone call made at a prearranged time in order to wake someone up.

Complimentary- Given or supplied free of charge.

Concierge- A hotel employee whose job is to assist guests outside their rooms.

Hotel butler- A hotel employee who looks after the needs of guests within their rooms

Avail- Use or take advantage of

© 2018 albert-learning.com

INTRODUCTION

Booking the perfect hotel room is a very important part of planning your trip. Whether you come back to your comfortable hotel room after a long day of travelling or you stay in bed all day, It's important to book a good room within your budget. The following roleplay conversation shows how you can book a hotel room and get the perfect deal for yourself.

© 2018 albert-learning.com