Human Trafficking

© 2018 albert-learning.com

ALBERT LEARNING

Vocabulary

Servitude: the state of being under the control of someone else and of having no freedom.

Coercion: the use of force to persuade someone to do something that they are unwilling to do.

Marginalized: to treat someone or something as if they are not important.

Vulnerable: able to be easily physically, emotionally, or mentally hurt, influenced, or attacked.

Reprisals: activity against another person, especially as punishment by military forces or a political group.

Hostage: someone who is taken as a prisoner by an enemy in order to force the other people involved to do what the enemy wants.

Submissive: allowing yourself to be controlled by other people or animals.

© 2018 albert-learning.com

Introduction

When people are harbored or transported into a situation where they are exploited by violence, deception, coercion or are forced to work against their will, it is called Human trafficking.

People in these circumstances undergo different forms of exploitation: forced prostitution, forced labor, forced begging, forced criminality, domestic servitude, forced marriage, and forced organ removal.

© 2018 albert-learning.com